Two-Year MBA, 64 Credits

FIRST YEAR FALL—19 Credits

Pre-Core

Foundational Experience (1 credit)

Core Module 1

Economics and Management Decisions (3 credits)

Data Analysis for Managerial Decision-Making (3 credits)

Financial Reporting and Control (3 credits)

Core Module 2

Creating Value Through Operations and Technology (3 credits)

Marketing Management (3 credits)

Financial Management (3 credits)

FIRST YEAR SPRING—17 Credits

Pre-Week

Introduction to Business Law (2 credits)

Core Module 3

IT Strategies for a Networked Economy (3 credits)

Managing Organizations and People (3 credits)

Competition, Innovation, and Strategy (3 credits)

Exploration Module

2 Electives (3 credits each)

SUMMER

Internship (encouraged)

SECOND YEAR FALL—16 Credits

Ethical Leadership in a Global Economy (3 credits)

Professional Skills Collection (1 credit)

4 Electives (3 credits each)

SECOND YEAR SPRING—12 Credits

Global Engagement Experience (3 credits)

3 Electives (3 credits each)

You can take up to three additional electives[5]

As you would expect in a leading institution, the curriculum is constantly evolving to anticipate the future needs of graduates. The above list is for reference purposes only and is subject to change each semester.